Disability Athletics at Tidworth

On the 26th May the Disability Athletics festival took place at Tidworth Oval. There were 40 students competed from 5 schools including; Larkrise, Avon valley College, Sarum Academy, St Edmunds and Kingdown.

All the students had to complete 4 events including; 300m, 75m, Vortex throw and the Standing Long Jump.

The young sports leaders that helped the event run smoothly were from St Edmunds and Kingdown. They were very helpful and officiated for all the events.

For each event the students were given points depending on where they came and these points got added together to get an overall total.
